Dear Mr. Yank Barry

On behalf of Armed Forces Development Command, I would like to convey a sincere thanks for your generous donation of 1 million packs of VITAPRO. Your contribution will be transferred to The Association for The Promotion of Education in The Remote Areas under the Patronage of Her Royal Highness Princess Mother, to make it possible for us both to keep on helping the students in the remote area as well as the victims of any disasters.

We sincerely thank you for your kindness and may the good Lord continue to richly bless you and your business in your desire to help the less fortunate in this world.

Yours sincerely,

General
